Key Membership Terms

By becoming a Life Flight Network Member, you agree to the membership terms listed below as well as the complete Statement of Understanding, which can be reviewed at www.lifeflight.org

- A Life Flight Network membership is not an insurance policy, but secondary to insurance carriers. All insurance payments related to services provided by Life Flight Network will be paid directly to or transferred to Life Flight Network.
- Per government regulations, individuals covered by Medicaid are not eligible and should not apply.
- Emergency air medical transports are based on medical need, not membership status. Medical need can only be determined by a physician, EMS provider, hospital or another qualified third-party recognized by Medicare. Costs associated with air medical transport for the purpose of an organ transplant are not covered by membership.
- New member and lapsed member benefits take effect 72 hours after receipt of a completed enrollment with payment. There is no grace period for a lapsed membership.
- A membership can be canceled at any time, however fees are non-refundable, non-transferable and not tax deductible.

Confirmation of completed application, statement of understanding, and a receipt will be mailed within 7-10 days after receipt of application and payment.

“My husband Chuck woke up at night during a north-central Oregon hunting trip unable to breathe. Life Flight Network was called in and their amazing crew took immediate steps to stabilize him during transport. Once at the hospital, we were told his chances of survival were not good, but the fast response and exceptional care made all the difference. I have my husband back and our Life Flight Network membership ensures we won’t ever have to pay thousands of dollars for an air medical flight.”

LIFE FLIGHT NETWORK

THERE
WHEN YOU NEED US®

Life Flight Network is a nationally-recognized, not-for-profit air medical service with bases in Idaho, Oregon, Washington and Montana. Our critical care flight nurses and paramedics prove every day they are among the very finest in the nation. When we are called to provide medical transport, our flight team serves as a mobile critical care unit with one purpose – to save lives.

Life Flight Network’s membership program provides financial peace of mind for more than 155,000 individuals and 70,000 households. Life Flight Network has transported more than 90,000 patients during over 37 years of operation and is committed to establishing bases in communities where we are most needed to benefit patients.

How Does Membership Work?

Medical emergencies happen every day without warning. If EMS or health care providers determine Life Flight Network air medical transport is needed, your membership protects you and your family from having any out-of-pocket expenses. Life-saving air medical transport can be expensive and health insurance may not cover all costs. Life Flight Network works directly with your insurance company for their portion of the payment and the rest is covered by your membership.

Reciprocal Agreements Expand Coverage

Life Flight Network members are also covered by reciprocal agreements with other regional air medical transport organizations in Idaho, Washington, western Montana, northern Nevada and northern California, subject to the reciprocal program’s membership rules. To view a current list of our reciprocal programs, please visit www.lifeflight.org.

Membership Benefits

- Life Flight Network membership benefits cover you, your spouse or domestic partner and dependents claimed on your income tax return. Elderly or disabled family members living in the same household are also covered.
- There are no out-of-pocket expenses for emergent, medically-necessary flights.
- You are covered by all Life Flight Network bases in Idaho, Oregon, Washington and Montana, as well as our reciprocal partners.

Emergency Medical Calls: Always call 911 when you need emergency medical assistance. A physician, EMS provider or other authorized personnel will determine if LFN is needed.
